The Royal Wine Challenge 2009 ended!

Belgrade, 21st of May 2009. - Under patronage of His Royal Highness Crown Prince Alexander and Tuscany Princesses Strozzi, first wine competition „The Royal Wine Challenge" was held in White Palace in Dedinje Compound.

Three panels of judges, made out of respected European and Serbian wine tasters, were evaluating the samples for three days - from 16th to 18th of May. To the competition were submitted 330 samples from 15 participating European countries: Austria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Montenegro, Croatia, Czech Republic, France, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Macedonia, Slovakia, Slovenia and Spain. 35 % of all wines in competition were produced in Serbia, what proofs international importance of this event.

Using 100 points method of OIV, samples were evaluated in 6 different categories:

- white wines (dry and semi-dry)
- rose wines (dry and semi-dry)
- red wines (dry and semi-dry)
- sparkling wines
- dessert wines
- special and fortified wines

Wines will be awarded with Bronze medals, Silver medals, Golden medals and Great Gold medals. The best wine of each category will be awarded with special prize.

Announcement of results of RWC will be held on Sunday 24th of May at Royal Wine Night in the White Palace.

We are delighted to announce the first year of the international wine competition in Belgrade - The Royal Wine Challenge. Our patron is His Royal Highness Crown Prince Aleksandar II Karadordević and Tuscan Princesses Natalia and Irina Strozzi. The event will take place in the White Palace in May, 2009.

The aim of the Royal Wine Challenge is to support the progress of wine culture, winemaking and viticulture and, to contribute to the Foundation of Crown Prince Alexander.

The world class judges are mainly from countries with a great history of winemaking and wine tasting, and with the supervision of HRH Aleksandar II and Princesses Strozzi, make this competition both professional and of a high standard.

Medal Award Ceremony of RWC will take place at the Royal Palace in the Royal Dedinje Compound.
